Official Service List

Please be advised that this docket has entered a formal stage and a new service list has been established and shall be exclusively used on a prospective basis. This service list consists solely of persons that have filed a petition to intervene or have requested status as an interested person since the prehearing conference held on February 26, 2004. These persons will be the only participants served hereafter with any documents in this docket. If you have any questions, please contact my secretary, Carol Hulse at 503-378-3885.
