DISPOSITION: STATUS REPORT CORRECTIONS; ISSUES LIST WILL NOT BE CIRCULATED.

The September 30, 2004, status report contained an error in fourth paragraph, under the heading Administrative Law Judges' Update. The first sentence should have read:

Parties have submitted testimony that can be more appropriately characterized as argument, rather than evidence.

I also indicated that a list summarizing the outstanding issues would be issued today. It was my intent to circulate such a list. In working on this project, I came to realize that circulating an issues list at this point in the schedule has limited usefulness to the parties, and could create more confusion. Therefore, the last paragraph in the status conference report is stricken.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 4th day of October, 2004.
