Pursuant to the ALJ's ruling on August 2, 2005, Staff has no comments regarding the moderator qualifications. Additionally, Staff respectfully submits the following name for Commission consideration.

Jennifer Webster, PhD
Business Strategies
Salem, OR

PacifiCorp supports the use of Jennifer Webster and ICNU is not opposed to the selection of Jennifer Webster as moderator.

Jennifer is the principal of Business Strategies, Inc, and provides consulting services in the areas of strategic planning, facilitation, team and leadership development, process analysis, and curriculum development. She provides services in both the private and public sector. Her range of clients includes; Sprint Corporation, PacifiCorp, IBM, Mentor Graphics, Goodwill, Department of Human Services, Oregon State Legislature, Oregon Department of Revenue, and the Tuality Healthcare. She also teaches at Oregon State University and Portland State University in their graduate schools of education. She moved to Oregon nine years ago from Kansas City where Sprint Corporation employed her as an educational consultant.

Jennifer has the following academic background: PhD in Adult Education from Oregon State University, MBA from Webster University - Kansas City, BS in Business from George Mason University - Fairfax, VA.

Recent utility work includes the following:

1. BPA – Provided training services to BPA for the past 3 years. Training workshops included; Intergenerational Diversity and Gender Differences.
2. PUC – Provided facilitation and training services for PUC for the past 6 years.

Workshops have included Myers-Briggs, Workplace Diversity, Facilitation of the Oregon Joint Use Association, and the Oregon Utility Notification Center Association.

3. PacifiCorp – Provided coaching and management training sessions and train-the-trainer programs for the company (course workshops did not exceed 2-3 days in length).

Sincerely,

Bryan Conway
