On May 4, 2007, Administrative Law Judge Petrillo issued a ruling directing the parties in this docket to file a joint statement indicating “whether there is, in fact, disagreement regarding the location of Tax Lot 501, and if so, the specific facts in dispute.” Pursuant to this ruling, the Property Owners of Tax Lot 501, PacifiCorp and Hood River Electric Cooperative (“HREC”) (collectively “the Parties”) hereby jointly state as follows:

1. The Parties agree that PacifiCorp’s and HREC’s service lines run across a minimal portion of the South and West portions of Tax Lot 501.
2. The Parties agree that Whiskey Creek separates PacifiCorp’s service territory from HREC’s service territory. PacifiCorp’s service territory rests to the North; and HREC’s service territory rests to the South.
3. The Parties agree that the proposed building site for Tax Lot 501 is to the North of Whiskey Creek, in PacifiCorp’s service territory.

Therefore, there is no dispute about the location of Tax Lot 501 or the boundaries of PacifiCorp's and HREC's service territories.

DATED this 21st day of May, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,
