RE: UE 189, AMI Systems Acceptance Testing (SAT)

On November 11, 2008, PGE submitted a letter to the Commission indicating that Systems Acceptance Testing (SAT) would be delayed until the first quarter of 2009 because of delays in meter delivery and software completion. PGE has almost completed SAT, but we currently believe that an additional two weeks are necessary to allow the meter manufacturer sufficient time to provide an adequate number of meters to resolve issues with meter accuracy. This delay would move the beginning of full meter deployment to the end of the first quarter or March 31, 2009. PGE still expects, however, that full deployment will be completed by year-end 2010, which is still within the time allotted in the AMI tariff.

If you have any questions regarding this submittal, please contact Alex Tooman at (503) 464-7623 or Patrick Hager at (503) 464-7580.

Sincerely,
