You are more than a customer.

You are a Member!

When you have Gervais Telephone's services, you are a member of the Gervais Telephone cooperative and enjoy some unique, significant benefits.

What is a cooperative? It is a collectively owned enterprise managed for joint economic and/or services benefit. The members own the company together, where policies and decisions are made through a democratically elected Board of Directors composed of cooperative members.

There are seven principles of a cooperative. One of the most tangible benefits many members feel directly are the Capital Credits checks they may receive as a portion of the return of net profit from their company. There are a lot of fancy ways to say it, but essentially, YOU ACCUMULATE CAPITAL CREDITS PROPORTIONATELY TO WHAT YOU SPEND ON SERVICES GERVAIS TELEPHONE OFFERS. The more members who use more services, the more money Gervais Telephone has to reinvest in better technology, to keep prices affordable, and to share its net profit with members.

No other telecommunications company structure will give you this benefit; only a cooperative like Gervais Telephone.

When members cancel their local telephone or Internet service from Gervais Telephone, they no longer qualify for membership benefits; including capital credits.

A note of caution: If you subscribe only to cell phone service (no landline), be aware that Emergency 911 may not be able to locate your residence or business when you or someone in your home or business is seriously injured, or in need of urgent medical attention. Also, you will not be listed in the phone directory.

When you buy telephone or Internet services from someone other than Gervais Telephone, just remember, "All that glitters is not gold." You may experience longer wait times "on hold" when you call for a customer service representative. You may be addressed by a recorded electronic device when you call with a question or service issue. You may experience longer delays in getting your problem solved because the company you buy from is out of the area.

Gervais Telephone.
 Your telecommunications cooperative.
