BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

UM 1317

In the Matter of the Application of Portland
General Electric Company for an Order
Approving the Deferral of Direct and Indirect
Costs and the Balance of the Residential
Exchange

Addendum to Application For Deferral Of Residential Exchange Costs and Balance

Portland General Electric Company ("PGE") submits this addendum to its application ("Application") for authorization to defer for later ratemaking treatment direct and indirect costs as well as balances resulting from the administration of the Residential Exchange Program under the Northwest Power Act and PGE's Schedule 102.

In its Application PGE explained the reason for the filing. Briefly, the Application was filed out of caution due to the recent suspension of Residential Exchange benefits by BPA as a result of two decisions on May 3, 2007 by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. PGE's Schedule 102 currently passes through to customers the benefits received from BPA. At same time as the Application was filed, PGE also made an Advice Filing to change Schedule 102 to cease passing-through the benefits effective June 1, 2007.

The Application contained an estimate of the amount of credit paid to customers in excess of the amount received from BPA of $2.1 million. That estimate was based on billings received from BPA including a bill issued by BPA to PGE on May 15, 2007, that included the Residential Exchange credit for the month of April. However, on May 23, 2007, BPA issued a "Revised Final" bill that did not include the Residential Exchange credit for April. The revised bill states "[t]his power bill is being revised to suspend IOU payments and/or credits until further notice."

As a result, PGE now estimates that, if credits under Schedule 102 are suspended on June 1, 2007, PGE will overpay Residential Exchange benefits to its residential and small farm customers by an estimated $8.5 million.

DATED this 29th day of May 2007.

Respectfully Submitted,
