On November 2, 2009, the Fred Meyers Stores and Quality Food Centers, Divisions of the Kroger Co. (Kroger) filed a Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice of Michael L. Kurtz, Kurt J. Boehm, and John P. Lowry (Kroger Motion). On November 13, 2009, Kroger was ordered to supplement the motion with additional information required by Uniform Trial Court Rule 3.170. Kroger supplemented its motion on November 25, 2009.

In its motion, Kroger seeks to admit Mr. Kurtz, a licensed attorney in good standing in the states of Ohio, Kentucky, and Michigan; Mr. Boehm, a licensed attorney in good standing in Ohio and Kentucky; and Mr. Lowry, a licensed attorney in good standing in the state of Ohio, as counsel pro hac vice, to associate with Oregon attorney Nona M. Soltero. The supplemented motion fulfills the statutory and rule requirements for participation of counsel licensed in another jurisdiction to appear before the Public Utility Commission of Oregon pro hac vice and should be granted. No objections have been received by the Commission from any other parties in this docket.

The motion to admit Michael L. Kurtz, Kurt J. Boehm, and John P. Lowry as counsel pro hac vice on behalf of Kroger Co., is GRANTED.
