Re: UM 1437; Notice of Ex Parte Communication

Dear Judge Grant:

On June 3, 2010, you issued a Notice of Ex Parte Communication (the "Notice") in the above-referenced docket. The written communications which the Notice references are dated November 10, 2009, November 12, 2009, April 2, 2010, April 15, 2010, April 19, 2010, April 21, 2010, and April 29, 2010. As stated in the Notice, any party may file a written rebuttal to these ex parte communications within 10 days of receipt of notice. Under the Commission's rule, TracFone Wireless, Inc. ("TracFone") currently has through today, June 14, 2010, to file such a rebuttal.

TracFone needs to respond to a number of the statements and much of the information included in the ex parte communications because they are incorrect, misleading, and unfairly prejudicial to TracFone's Application. TracFone respectfully requests an extension of time through June 28, 2010, to file such a rebuttal. TracFone requests this extension because of the press of other business including the preparation and filing of TracFone's direct testimony in this proceeding on June 11, 2010. No party will be prejudiced by this extension in view of the fact that their response testimony is not due until July 20, 2010. In addition, TracFone notes the considerable delay between the dates of these various ex parte communications and the date of the Notice.

Accordingly, TracFone respectfully requests an extension of time to file its written rebuttal to the ex parte communications. To the extent the Commission requires this request to be made by motion, please consider this letter to be TracFone's motion for an extension.

Sincerely yours,
