3. Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon (EMO) is a non-profit organization whose mission is to bring together Oregon's diverse faith community for dialogue, advocacy and community ministries in service to God's people and creation. EMO has 16 member denominations, over 75 member congregations, and 14 interfaith partners. Oregon Interfaith Power and Light (OIPL), a project of EMO, engages the faith community to strive for accountability in our individual and collective energy decisions in an interdependent world by providing education, advocacy and consultation.

4. EMO intends to monitor the proceedings and raise issues as appropriate.

5. EMO has many years of experience working in energy and social justice issues and is interested the common good in resource decisions.

6. Petitioner waives paper service of documents.

Based on the information provided above in accordance with the Commission's rules of procedure, EMO requests to participate in this proceeding as an intervenor. Neither I, nor the organization that I represent, will unreasonably broaden the issues, burden the record or unreasonably delay the proceeding.

DATED this 20th day of November 2009.
