OREGON

Staff investigation of the Oregon Universal Service Fund.

RULING

DISPOSITION: PETITIONS TO INTERVENE GRANTED

On May 14, 2010, Frontier Communications of Oregon filed its petition to intervene in this docket. Petitioner has sufficient interest in the proceeding, and its appearance and participation will not unreasonably broaden the issues, burden the record, or unreasonably delay the proceeding. See OAR 860-012-0001. The time for objection has passed. The above petition to intervene is granted.

For the following petitions to intervene, the time for objection has not yet passed. I find that the petitioners have sufficient interest in the proceeding, and that their appearance and participation will not unreasonably broaden the issues, burden the record, or unreasonably delay the proceeding. See OAR 860-012-0001. The following petitions are conditionally granted, and will be finally granted once the period for objection for each petition has passed.
