I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to ORS 860-001-0420(1) and 860-001-0460(1), the Northwest and Intermountain Power Producers Coalition (“NIPPC”), Community Renewable Energy Association (“CREA”), and Renewable Energy Coalition (“Coalition”) (collectively “Complainants”) respectfully request that Oregon Public Utility Commission (“Commission”) Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) Allan Arlow take official notice of the several Commission documents related to Portland General Electric’s (“PGE’s”) interpretation of the Commission’s policy requires 15 years of fixed prices from the time of power deliveries, including PGE’s standard contracts implementing that policy.

II. MOTION

The Commission is considering whether its policy requiring 15 years of fixed price payments begins when power deliveries (and sales) begin or upon contract execution. The Commission's 15-year fixed-price policy is discussed in UM 1129, UM 1610, UM 1734, and UM 1725, including:
