

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

Docket No. UM 1811

In the Matter of)	RESPONSE OF
Portland General Electric's Application for)	SIEMENS TO CHARGEPOINT'S
Transportation Electrification Programs)	RESPONSE TO SIEMENS'S
)	PETITION TO INTERVENE

eMeter, a Siemens Company (Siemens) hereby files this response to the response filed by ChargePoint on September 8, 2017 regarding the Petition to Intervene in this docket filed by Siemens on August 30, 2017.

Siemens has no intent to broaden the issues, burden the record, or delay the proceedings. In our Petition to Intervene, we state, "Siemens intends to file testimony in support of the Stipulation filed June 27, 2017 by the Stipulating Parties in this proceeding."¹ In this Response, we clarify that our intent is not to file any direct testimony, nor will we "provide fresh arguments in support of the Stipulation," as alleged by ChargePoint in its objection to our intervention.² Our intent is limited to filing reply testimony to the Response Testimony to the Stipulation filed by ChargePoint and the Electric Vehicle Charging Association (EVCA) on August 25, 2017. Our reply testimony will be filed in accordance with Administrative Law Judge Harper's August 15, 2017 ruling and the procedural schedule contained therein. Our reply testimony will be limited to the issues raised in the ChargePoint and EVCA testimony filed on August 25, 2017.

² ChargePoint's response to Siemens' Petition to Intervene, ¶ 4.

Respectfully submitted this 11th day of September, 2017,
