Pursuant to OAR 860-001-0420, Small Business Utility Advocates (“SBUA”) moves the Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) to allow SBUA to file a Reply to Motion for leave to file SBUA’s Opening Brief out of time with regard to the schedule set forth in the ALJ October 6, 2022 Ruling. The reasons supporting this request are the training entity staff to utilize the pilot technology for filing documents in the docket, and the simultaneous press of business in other matters.

It is just and reasonable to allow this filing out of time. SBUA did contact other parties with this Motion prior to this filing, and no party objected. Further, no delay will be caused by allowing SBUA to file out of time where no party should be surprised at the testimony offered by SBUA in the support of the Third Stipulation, and SBUA’s previously communicated positions of no objection to the First, Second, and Fourth Stipulations.

//

For these reasons, the ALJ should grant SBUA leave to file its Opening Brief on October 18, 2022.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED October 18, 2022.
