DISPOSITION: PARTIES DIRECTED TO IDENTIFY CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS

Some of the materials to be offered into evidence in this proceeding have been claimed by the parties to be confidential. While I do not question that original designation, it may be that, because of the passage of time or some other consideration, some of this material no longer requires protected status.

As a first order of business at the hearing on August 7th I will inquire of the parties what information remains confidential and the grounds for the claim. I expect that parties to be able to respond with specificity.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 30th day of July, 2007.
