Re: In the Matter of Portland General Electric Company's Net Variable Power Costs (NVPC) and Annual Power Cost Update (APCU);
Docket No. UE 286

Dear Judge Arlow,

This letter responds to your March 11, 2014 Prehearing Memorandum and Ruling directing parties to designate exhibits for Docket No. UE 286, which was opened to address Portland General Electric (PGE) updates to its Power Cost Adjustment Mechanism (PCAM) separately from the other portions of PGE's general rate request, docketed as Docket No. UE 283. The tariffs for PGE's PCAM are Schedules 125 and 126. PGE addresses these tariffs in its Exhibit 500.

Rather than attempting to limit the record in UE 286 at this point in the proceedings, parties to Docket No. UE 286 ask that the Administrative Law Judge designate PGE's February 13, 2014 UE 283 filing as available in the UE 286 docket.¹ Designating the entire February 13, 2014 filing as available in Docket No. UE 286 will simplify discovery in the UE 286 docket and the parties' references to PGE testimony will be simplified.

Sincerely,

Stephanie S. Andrus
Senior Assistant Attorney General
Business Activities Section

¹ Staff consulted the Citizens' Utility Board of Oregon, PGE, the Industrial Customers of Northwest Utilities and Noble America Energy Solutions regarding this designation proposal. Staff did not consult the other two parties to this docket, NW Natural and PacifiCorp, who note in their petitions to intervene that they intend to monitor the proceedings and only raise issues if necessary.
