In the Matter of

STORLIE WATER COMPANY, INC.,

Request for a General Rate Revision.

ORDER

DISPOSITION: STIPULATION ADOPTED

I. INTRODUCTION

Storlie Water Company, Inc. (Storlie) filed an application for a general rate revision on May 14, 2015. The company proposed an overall increase of 41 percent, or $8,684, over test period revenues of $21,166, resulting in an overall revenue requirement of $29,851. Storlie requested a 10 percent rate of return on its rate base of $12,938.

A public comment hearing and prehearing conference were held on July 9, 2015. Two customers attended. No petitions to intervene were filed.

A settlement conference was held on September 17, 2015. No customers attended.

On November 25, 2015, Storlie and the Commission Staff filed a stipulation with supporting testimony of Staff. Their stipulation settles all issues in this proceeding. The stipulation is attached to this decision as Appendix A. The stipulation and testimony are received into evidence.

In their stipulation, the parties agree to an increase of 36.7 percent or $7,766, resulting in a test year revenue requirement of $28,932. The parties also stipulated to a 10 percent rate of return on a rate base of $13,133.

II. BACKGROUND

Storlie currently serves 17 customers, nearly all of whom receive both residential and irrigation water service, in Bend, Oregon. The utility was constructed in 1975 and began providing service in 1977.

This is Storlie's first rate case. Although Storlie began providing service in 1977, it did not become rate-regulated by the Commission until March 2015, at which time we asserted jurisdiction under ORS 757.061.<sup>1</sup> That statute allows customers to seek rate regulation once a utility proposes to raise its average monthly rate above threshold levels. The company has not increased its rates since March 2003.<sup>2</sup>

Storlie provides residential service with water pumped from its domestic well. Residential water is metered and customers pay a base rate each month as well as a variable rate for each 100 cubic feet of water used. Storlie reads meters twice per year and charges residential customers monthly, based on average consumption. Following meter readings, the residential bills are adjusted to reflect actual consumption over the previous six-month period.

Irrigation water is purchased from the Central Oregon Irrigation District (COID) and is available to customers from April through October. COID charges the company an annual base fee for irrigation water as well as various other annual fees applicable to each of Storlie's irrigation customers. Storlie collects the fees from its customers annually, in addition to charging a year-round monthly rate for pumping the irrigation water.

III. STIPULATION

A. Customer Concerns

One customer expressed concerns regarding the amount of the proposed rate increase and water quality due to the chlorination of the residential water after a positive coliform test. The customer felt that Storlie did not give its customers sufficient notice before the chlorination. Staff addressed the first issue by explaining the ratemaking process. Staff discussed the second issue with the company, which stated that it will mail notices more quickly in response to future events. Coliform has been eliminated from the system and the water quality returned to its usual state.

B. Ratemaking Issues

Staff made both upward and downward adjustments to Storlie's proposed expenses. Staff's primary adjustments were related to the reallocation and recalculation of the labor costs attributable to the company's management. Staff evaluated the reasonableness of the labor costs based on the hours of work per month and comparable pay rates in the area for similar work.

Regarding rate base, Staff updated Storlie's plant-in-service and its depreciation schedule, resulting in a slight increase in rate base. The parties agreed to a 10 percent rate of return. The company has no debt.

C. Late Payment Charge

In its application, Storlie requested a waiver of OAR 860-036-0130 (Late-Payment Charge) and proposed to set its late payment charge at $10.<sup>3</sup> In Staff's view, the company was unable to demonstrate a cost basis for its proposed $10 charge. Current rules allow the company to disconnect customers for nonpayment and to assess a fee for reconnection. The stipulation does not provide for the late payment charge.

D. Revenue Allocation

Staff found a discrepancy in the allocation of the revenue requirement between residential water (43 percent) and irrigation (57 percent) relative to the cost allocation between the two services (48 percent residential, 52 percent irrigation). However, Staff was concerned about rate shock for the residential customers if the relative allocations were realigned immediately (61 percent increase for residential customers, 20 percent increase for irrigation customers). In their stipulation, the parties agreed to use the 43/57 residential/irrigation allocation, resulting in a 51 percent increase for residential and a 27 percent increase for irrigation. In future cases, the parties agreed that progress should be made toward allocating the revenue requirement consistently with the distribution of costs.

E. Rate Design

Of the $16,455 irrigation revenue requirement, $3,009 will be collected through annual fees and the remaining $13,446 will be collected through monthly irrigation bills.

Annual fees are reduced to reflect actual costs billed to Storlie by COID. COID charges a base fee of $1,850 annually for irrigation water, which has been divided equally among irrigation customers, resulting in an annual fee per customer of $115.63. Additionally, COID charges Storlie an annual Operations and Maintenance fee per customer, based on the customer's acreage. Customers now will be billed the exact amount charged to Storlie by COID for their individual properties. Each customer also will be billed for the new $25 annual "Habitat Fee" which COID implemented beginning in 2015.

For residential customers, the only annual fee is for backflow testing. That fee is being reduced from $50 to the actual cost, which is $15.

The overall reduction to annual fees requires a larger percentage of revenue to be collected through monthly bills than previously, contributing to the increase in monthly bills.

<sup>3</sup> OAR 860-036-0130 requires rate-regulated water utilities to use a Commission determined rate for assessing a charge on overdue balances. The current Commission-determined rate is 1.8 percent per month.

Staff found that about 72 percent of Storlie's costs are fixed and about 28 percent are variable. For irrigation rates, Staff used that split to allocate revenues collected through monthly bills, consisting of a fixed base fee plus an additional rate charged per acre of irrigated land.

For residential service, Staff allocated 75 percent of the revenues to the base rate and only 25 percent to the variable rate, setting the variable rate at $3.00 per 100 cubic feet, up from $0.95 per 100 cubic feet, mitigating the rate shock for those residential customers with heavier usage.

F. Meter Reading

The parties agree that Storlie will continue with its practice of reading meters two times per year – April and October. Monthly meter readings would require Storlie to hire an outside contractor and increase its revenue requirement accordingly.

IV. DISCUSSION

As reflected in Staff's testimony, the first rate case for any water utility often requires that Staff reallocate expenses to conform to the Commission's accounting practices, before evaluating the reasonableness of the expenses. In this case we also have the unusual aspect of the two services – domestic water and irrigation.

Staff's testimony presents a thorough analysis of Storlie's accounting and a fair allocation of the costs between residential service and irrigation. While the percentage increase appears to be large, this is the company's first increase since 2003, making the increase seem moderate. The stipulation is reasonable and is adopted.

V. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Advice No. 15-17 filed by Storlie Water Company, Inc., is permanently suspended.
2. The stipulation between Storlie Water Company, Inc., and the Staff of the Public Utility Commission of Oregon, attached as Appendix A, is adopted.

3. Storlie Water Company, Inc., shall file tariff sheets consistent with this order with an effective date of January 1, 2016.

Made, entered, and effective DEC 18 2015.

All bills, including closing bills, are due and payable at the Utility office within 20 days (at least 15 day requirement) when rendered by deposit in the mail or other reasonable means of delivery, unless otherwise specified on the bill. The date of presentation is the date on which the Utility mails the bill.

As near as practical, meters shall be read on the 1st of April and on the 1st of October of each year. Meter readings will establish an estimate for each customer for billing over the subsequent 6 months. A true up of actual use will be performed at the next semi-annual meter reading.

Bills shall be rendered monthly according to actual or estimated usage. OAR 860-036-0120(3) requires water utilities to bill at monthly intervals. However, the Utility may request, upon application, special authority from the Commission to bill at intervals other than monthly.

The Utility will keep at least 10 years of all billings records (flat or metered rates) and three years of meter readings. The Utility shall make a reasonable effort to prepare opening and closing bills from actual meter readings. When there is good reason for doing so, estimated bills may be submitted. Any estimated billings shall be clearly designated as such. When requested, the Utility shall demonstrate to the Commission the reason for the estimated billing.

All water service bills shall show:

- B. Beginning and ending dates of the period of service to which the bill applies;
- C. For all metered bills, beginning and ending meter readings for the period for which the bill is rendered;

A late-payment charge may be assessed against any account that has an unpaid balance when the next bill is being prepared. The charge will be added on to the delinquent balance owing at the time of preparing the subsequent month's bill at the late-payment rate specified in the Miscellaneous Service Charges Schedule. The late-payment rate is determined annually by the Commission, and the Utility will be notified of the rate.

If an account is permitted to become delinquent, the Utility may disconnect water service by giving proper notice to the customer as provided in Rules 28 and 29, prior to or after the Utility assesses the late payment charge.

Rule 23: Returned Payment Charge

The Returned Payment Charge listed on the Miscellaneous Service Charges Schedule shall be billed for each occasion a customer submits any type of noncash payment (check, debit, electronic, etc.) that is not honored, for any reason, by a bank or other financial institution.

Rule 24: Prorating of Bills

Initial and final bills will be prorated according to the number of days service was rendered and on the basis of a 31-day month. For metered services, a reasonable effort will be made to read the meter upon opening and closing a customer's account. Consumption will be charged at scheduled rates. Any minimum monthly charge will be prorated.

Rule 25: Adjustment of Bills (860-036-0135)

When an underbilling or overbilling occurs, the Utility shall provide written notice to the customer detailing the circumstances, period of time, and the amount of the adjustment. If it can be shown that the error was due to an identifiable cause, the date of which can be fixed, the overcharge or undercharge shall be computed back to such date. If no date can be fixed, the Utility shall refund the overcharge or rebill the undercharge for no more than six months' usage. In no event shall an overbilling or underbilling be for more than three years' usage. No billing adjustment shall be required if a meter registers less than 2 percent error under conditions of normal operation.

When a customer is required to repay an underbilling, the customer shall be entitled to enter into a time-payment agreement without regard to whether the customer already participates in such an agreement. If the customer and the Utility cannot agree upon payment terms, the Commission shall establish terms and conditions to govern the repayment obligation.

The Utility shall provide written notice advising the customer of the opportunity to enter into a time-payment agreement and of the Commission's complaint process.

The Utility shall maintain pressure at a minimum of 20 pounds per square inch (psi) for health reasons to each customer at all times. In general, 40 psi of water pressure in the water mains is usually adequate for the purposes of this rule. However, adequate pressure may vary depending on each individual water system and customers' circumstances. In the case of a dispute, the Commission will determine the appropriate water pressure for the Utility.

Rule 41 Pressure Surveys (OAR 860-036-0320)

If the customer requests more than one pressure test within any 12-month period, a deposit to recover the reasonable cost of the additional test may be required of the customer. The deposit shall be returned if the pressure test indicates less than 20 psi. The customer or designated representative has the right to be present at the pressure test, and said test shall be conducted at a mutually agreeable time.

For metered service, the pressure will be tested at a point adjacent to the meter on the customer's service line.

For non-metered service, the pressure will be tested at the customer's service line or hose bib or other reasonable point likely to best reflect the actual service pressure.
