In the Matter of

PACIFICORP, dba PACIFIC POWER,
2019 Transition Adjustment Mechanism.

MODIFIED PROTECTIVE ORDER

DISPOSITION: MOTION FOR MODIFIED PROTECTIVE ORDER GRANTED

PacifiCorp, dba Pacific Power, filed a motion for a modified protective order to be effective in its 2018 and 2019 Transition Adjustment Mechanism (TAM) proceedings. PacifiCorp explains this modified protective order supplements the ongoing TAM General Protective Order No. 16-128 and provides additional protection for highly commercially sensitive information related to PacifiCorp's coal supply agreements, fueling strategy at its coal-fired generation facilities, and the documents and records of affiliated coal mining activities.

The modified protective order includes two additional protections for highly confidential information. First, the modified protective order states that highly protected information is to be labeled as such, printed on green paper, and (if applicable) uploaded to a special folder in Huddle. Second, the modified protective order limits the persons that are qualified to access highly protected information. Parties may agree to be bound by the modified protective order signing by signing Appendix B. A party may qualify their counsel and employees of the regulatory division of the Oregon Citizens' Utility Board if those persons sign Appendix B and affirm that the party the person is associated with has a legitimate and non-competitive need for the Highly Confidential Information for this proceeding and not simply a general interest in the information. Other persons that have signed the general TAM protective order may seek to be qualified by signing and submitting Appendix C.

PacifiCorp states that it has met the five requirements of OAR 806-001-0080(3)(a) for a modified protective order. PacifiCorp explains that, in Order No. 17-444, the Commission directed the company to provide updated coal fueling information with its 2019 TAM initial testimony, and these coal fueling documents will include highly sensitive commercial information regarding PacifiCorp's market positions.

I conclude that PacifiCorp has established a legal basis for additional protection under OAR 860-001-0080(3)(a) and issue the attached modified protective order to govern access to highly protected coal fueling information that has been designated as highly protected information. I also adopt the modified protective order on an expedited basis, prior to the deadline for the filing of any objections. I do so to allow PacifiCorp to timely file its initial TAM testimony. This quick action does not foreclose a party from seeking reconsideration of this decision.

Dated this 29th day of March 2018 at Salem, Oregon.

MODIFIED PROTECTIVE ORDER
DOCKET NO. UE 339

Scope of this Order:

1. This order supplements General Protective Order No. 16-128 and governs the acquisition and use of "Highly Protected Information" produced or used by any party to dockets UE 323 and UE 339.

Designation of Protected Information and "Highly Protected Information":

2. Any party may designate as Highly Protected Information any information the party reasonably determines:
 - (a) Falls within the scope of ORCP 36(C)(7) (a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information);
 - (b) Is not publicly available; and
 - (c) Is not adequately protected by the general protective order.
3. To designate information as Highly Protected Information, a party must place the following legend on the material:

HIGHLY PROTECTED INFORMATION
SUBJECT TO MODIFIED PROTECTIVE ORDER NO. 18-_____

The party should make reasonable efforts to designate as Highly Protected Information only the portions of the information that satisfies paragraph 2 of this Modified Protective Order.

4. Each page of a document containing Highly Protected Information filed with the Commission and served on persons qualified to access Highly Protected Information under this order must be printed on green paper and placed in a sealed envelope or other appropriate container. Only the portions of a document that fall within ORCP 36(C)(7) may be placed in the envelope/container. The envelope/container must bear the legend:

THIS ENVELOPE IS SEALED UNDER ORDER NO. 18-_____
AND CONTAINS HIGHLY PROTECTED INFORMATION. THE INFORMATION MAY BE SHOWN ONLY TO PERSONS
QUALIFIED TO ACCESS HIGHLY PROTECTED INFORMATION
AS DEFINED IN THE ORDER.

5. Highly Protected Information disclosed by a designating party to a person qualified to access Highly Protected Information through informal discovery or by means of the Commission's Huddle website will be marked "Highly Protected Information" and uploaded to a file folder designated "highly protected" in Huddle, if applicable.

6. A party may designate as Highly Protected Information any information previously provided by giving written notice to the Commission and other parties. Parties in possession of newly designated Highly Protected Information must make reasonable efforts to ensure that all copies of the material containing the information bear the above legend if requested by the designating party.
7. A designating party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that information designated as Highly Protected Information continues to warrant protection under this order. If designated information becomes publically available or no longer falls within the scope of ORCP 36(C)(7), the designating party should make reasonable efforts to remove the protected designation and provide written notice to the Commission and other parties.

Challenge to Designation of Information as Highly Protected:

8. A party may informally challenge any designation of Highly Protected Information by notifying the designating party. Once notified, the designating party bears the burden of showing that the challenged information is covered by ORCP 36(C)(7) and that the “Highly Protected Information” designation is necessary. Any party may request that the ALJ hold a conference to help resolve disputes about proper designation.
9. If the dispute cannot be resolved informally, the challenging party may file a written objection with the ALJ. The objection need only identify the information in dispute and certify that reasonable efforts to achieve informal resolution have failed.
10. Within five business days of service of the objection, the designating party must either remove the challenged protected designation or file a written response. A written response must identify the factual and legal basis of how the challenged information is protected under the Oregon Public Records Act, ORS 192.410 et seq, or the Uniform Trade Secrets Act, ORS 646.461(4). Broad allegations unsubstantiated by specific facts are not sufficient. If the designating party does not timely respond to the objection, the Commission will remove the protected designation from the challenged information.
11. The challenging party may file a written reply to any response within five business days of service of an objection. The designating party may file a sur-reply within three business days of service of a response. The ALJ will make all reasonable efforts to resolve the matter within ten business days of service of the last filing.

Access to Highly Protected Information:

12. Persons automatically bound and qualified to access Highly Protected Information are:
 - (a) Commission employees; and
 - (b) Assistant Attorneys General assigned to represent the Commission.

13. The following persons are qualified to access Highly Protected Information upon completing Appendix B:
 - (a) An employee or counsel of the Regulatory Division at the Oregon Citizens' Utility Board; and
 - (b) Counsel for a party.
14. A party bound by the General Protective Order No. 16-128 may seek to qualify other persons to access certain specific Highly Protected Information by having those persons complete and sign Appendix C, and submitting that information to the designating party and the Commission. Within five business days of receiving a copy of Appendix C, the designating party must either provide the access to the requested information designated as Highly Protected Information or file an objection under paragraph 15.

Objection to Access to Protected Information:

15. All persons qualified to have access to Highly Protected Information will have access to Highly Protected Information unless the designating party objects as provided in this paragraph. As soon as the designating party becomes aware of reasons to restrict access to a Qualified Person, or objects to a person seeking qualification under Paragraph 14, the designating party must provide the person and his or her counsel notice stating the basis for the objection. The parties must promptly confer and attempt to resolve the dispute on an informal basis.
16. If the parties are unable to resolve the matter informally, the designating party must file a written objection with the ALJ. The requesting party may file a response to the motion within five business days of service of an objection. The ALJ will make all reasonable efforts to resolve the matter within ten business days of the last filing. Pending the ALJ's decision, the specific Highly Protected Information may not be disclosed to the person subject to the objection.

Use of Protected Information:

17. All Qualified Persons must take reasonable precautions to keep Highly Protected Information secure. Qualified Persons may reproduce Highly Protected Information only to the extent necessary to participate in these proceedings. A Qualified Person may discuss Highly Protected Information obtained under this order only with other Qualified Persons who have obtained the same information under this order.
18. Without the written permission of the designating party, any person given access to Highly Protected Information under this order may not disclose Highly Protected Information for any purpose other than participating in these proceedings.
19. Nothing in this protective order precludes any party from independently seeking through discovery in any other administrative or judicial proceeding information or materials produced in this proceeding under this protective order.

20. Counsel of record may retain memoranda, pleadings, testimony, discovery, or other documents containing Highly Protected Information to the extent reasonably necessary to maintain a file of these proceedings or to comply with requirements imposed by another governmental agency or court order. Any other person retaining Highly Protected Information must destroy or return it to the designating party within 90 days after final resolution of these proceedings unless the designating party consents in writing to retention of the Highly Protected Information. This paragraph does not apply to the Commission or its Staff.

Duration of Protection:

21. The Commission will preserve the designation of information as Highly Protected Information for a period of five years from the date of the final order in these proceedings, unless extended by the Commission at the request of the designating party. The Commission will notify the designating party at least two weeks prior to the release of Highly Protected Information.
