

The City of Portland would like to add 3 issues (below) to the proposed issues list as submitted by the OJUA

The definition of "interference" and a lack of the definition of "infrequent" in the proposed rules have unintended consequences to street trees.

The trimming for communications facilities is new and devastating to the urban forest.

The definition of "readily climbable" must be better defined to prevent needlessly damaging street trees.

Richard Gray
Portland Office of Transportation
1120 SW 5th, Rm 800 --106/800
Portland, OR 97204
503-823-5250
503-823-7609 fax
richard.gray@pdxtrans.org