In the Matter of

RICE HILL WATER DISTRICT

Assertion of Jurisdiction pursuant to ORS 757.

ORDER ALLOWING MOTION
WITHDRAWAL OF
ELLIS E. EMORY AND EMORY
COUNSEL

It appearing that Ellie E. Emory, former President of the The Rice Hill Owners Association, Inc. (RHOA) and his attorney, John A. Hudson of John A. Hudson Attorney at Law, LLC, have given notice of Mr. Emory's resignation as President of the RHOA and of the substitution of Amie Jamieson of Ater Wynne LLP, attorneys at law (see Notice of Addition and Removal of Counsel filed by attorney Jamieson and dated June 7, 2007) as attorney and representative of RHOA, and it further appearing that Ellis E. Emory has not appeared personally nor is he so named as an intervener or personal party to these proceedings, and it further appearing that Ellis E. Emory and his attorney have moved for an order confirming the substitution for RHOA and his non-involvement as an intervener or personal party and confirming the withdrawal of Mr. Emory and his attorney from this case; and no other party having filed an opposition; now therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the motion of Ellis E. Emory to allow confirmation of the substitution of Amie Jamieson as attorney and representative of The Rice Hill Owners Association, Inc., and to further allow his withdrawal and that of his attorney, John A. Hudson of John A. Hudson Attorney at Law, LLC, as his attorney of record herein, is granted, and the clerk shall enter such in the records in this proceeding.

Ordered this ____ day of _____, 2007.
