3. On July 24, 2007, the Commission initiated this docket based on the Commission Staff's recommendation to investigate the possibility of adopting new standards related to fuel diversity and fossil fuel generation efficiency added to the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act Section 111(d) by the Energy Policy Act of 2005.

4. Pacific Power has experience with and may be affected by the discussions and outcome(s) of this proceeding.

5. Pacific Power's participation here may assist the Commission in resolving the issues before it. Pacific Power will not unreasonably broaden the issues, burden the record, or unreasonably delay the proceedings.

6. Because of Pacific Power's direct and substantial interest in this matter, no other party can adequately represent Pacific Power's interests in this proceeding.

WHEREFORE, Pacific Power respectfully requests that the Commission grant this petition to intervene.

DATED: August 23, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,
