UPDATE: ALJ Allwein's October 1, 2021 ruling established a phased approach to this investigation, the first phase being a rulemaking. The Commission has opened rulemaking Docket No. AR 651 and we are moving all activity there for the remainder of Phase 1. Please note AR 651 is in the informal stage only and we look forward to discussing the process and schedule for the rulemaking at this upcoming workshop.

This workshop will focus on identifying an appropriate process and scope for UM 2024. The primary purpose will be to inform parties on staff's proposed options for the direction of this docket while gathering feedback to determine the best way to proceed. There will be time for parties to share concerns, questions, and ideas during the workshop. Staff appreciates your participation and attendance.

If you are unable to attend on the date or time listed, please notify Madison Bolton as soon as possible at the contact information provided below.
