RULING

DISPOSITION: MOTION TO ADMIT COUNSEL PRO HAC VICE GRANTED

On April 20, 2023, Sierra Club and Climate Solutions, filed a motion to allow Jan Hasselman to appear as counsel pro hac vice in this proceeding. The affidavit of Jan Hasselman accompanied the motion. Jan Hasselman states that he will associate with Jaimini Parekh, an active member in good standing with the Oregon State Bar.

I have reviewed the motions for admission pro hac vice and find that they comply with the requirements of UTCR 3.170 and OAR 860-001-0320. No objections have been received.

The motion to admit Jan Hasselman as counsel pro hac vice on behalf of Sierra Club and Climate Solutions is granted for a one-year period.¹ For cases continuing over one year, an attorney appearing pro hac vice must file a new application to continue to participate in the case.²

Dated this 2nd day of May, 2023, at Salem, Oregon.

¹ The motion to appear pro hac vice was filed on behalf of Sierra Club and Climate Solutions, though the contact information refers to Earthjustice, which has not petitioned to intervene in this proceeding. My understanding is that Jan Hasselman will be representing Sierra Club and Climate Solutions only in this proceeding and not Earthjustice. To the extent that Earthjustice intends to participate as a party in this proceeding, it should file a petition to intervene consistent with OAR 860-001-0300.
