RECOMMENDATION: APPROVE AGREEMENT

On August 28, 2002, Verizon Wireless and Verizon Northwest, Inc. filed the first amendment to the interconnection agreement previously approved by the Public Utility Commission of Oregon (Commission). The original interconnection agreement, ARB 45, was between U S West New Vector Group, Inc., and GTE Incorporated. U S West New Vector Group, Inc. was the predecessor to AirTouch/Verizon. GTE Incorporated was the predecessor to Verizon Northwest, Inc. The parties seek approval of this amendment under Section 252(e) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. The Commission provided notice by posting an electronic copy of the agreement on the World Wide Web, at: <http://www.puc.state.or.us/caragmnt/>. The Commission Staff (Staff) offers these comments.

Under the Act, the Commission must approve or reject an agreement reached through voluntary negotiation within 90 days of filing. The Commission may reject an agreement only if it finds that:

- (1) the agreement (or portion thereof) discriminates against a telecommunications carrier not a party to the agreement; or
- (2) the implementation of such agreement or portion is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

Staff recommends approval of the agreement. Staff concludes that the agreement does not appear to discriminate against telecommunications carriers who are not parties to the agreement and does not appear to be inconsistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

Staff notes that an interconnection agreement or amendment thereto has no effect or force until approved by a state Commission. See 47 U.S.C. Sections 251 (a) and (e). Accordingly, Staff points out that the effective date of this filing will be the date the Commission signs an order approving it, and that any provision stating that the parties' agreement is effective prior to that date is not enforceable.

Dated at Salem, this 17th day of September, 2002.
