RE: ETC Certification
Order No. 06-292

Dear Ms. Marinos:

Attached is the completed ETC Certification report for Nehalem Telecommunications, Inc. We sincerely apologize for not meeting the July 17th deadline. Due to summer schedules, it did not get into the right person's hands to complete until late in the day on July 17th. Also, as this was the first year for these revised requirements, so it was not marked on our calendar for annual reports due. The due date was earlier than we had filed ETC's in the past; and we had not planned on a July ETC filing.

We will make every effort to meet the deadline in the future. Again we sincerely apologize for this oversight and the resulting confusion and inconvenience to the Oregon Public Utilities Commission. I thank you for your patience and consideration in working with us in resolving this situation.

Sincerely,

Mark R. Martell
Administrative Manager

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM YOUR
COMMUNITY BASED TELECOM PROVIDER

COMMUNITY BASED TELECOM PROVIDER

NTI 6-1-05

Yes,
*You Can Afford
Telephone Service*

Every person in America should have access to quality, affordable telecommunications service. This principle of "Universal Service" has been the goal of the telecommunications industry for decades. In 1934, the federal government codified the goal and reaffirmed it in 1996 by establishing policies for the "preservation and advancement of Universal Service."

To achieve the Universal Service goal, carriers have access to a fund that is generated by contributions from the telecommunications providers in the United States. Telecommunications companies draw from the fund to provide four programs that support telecommunications services nationwide. Link-Up America (Link-Up) and the Lifeline Assistance Program (Lifeline) are part of the fund's Low-Income Program and are described in detail below. Toll limitation service is another program available to low income subscribers to help them control what they spend on telephone service.

Lifeline, Link Up, and Toll Limitation Service support provide discounts to eligible low-income consumers to help them establish and maintain telephone service.

What type of discount is available?

Lifeline assistance lowers the cost of basic monthly local telephone service. Eligible consumers can receive up to $10 per month in discounts. Additional state support also may be available.

Eligible residents of Indian reservations or tribal lands can receive up to an additional $25 in Lifeline support, but must pay at least $1 for basic monthly service.

Link Up reduces the cost of initiating new telephone service. Eligible consumers can receive a 50% discount off of the one-time costs associated with initiating telephone service, up to a maximum of $30. Eligible consumers also qualify for a deferred payment schedule for remaining costs of up to $200.

Eligible low-income consumers living on tribal lands are eligible for an additional discount of up to $70 to cover 100% of the charges between $60 and $130.

Toll Limitation Service (TLS) support allows eligible consumers who wish to avoid incurring large long distance fees to choose toll blocking or toll control at no cost.

How do I know whether I am eligible?

Eligibility for Lifeline, Link Up and TLS support varies by state. Individuals who reside in states that have their own discount programs qualify for federal Lifeline, Link Up and TLS support if they meet the eligibility criteria established by their state. In states that do not provide state support, an individual is eligible if he or she participates in one of the following programs:

- Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)
- Federal Public Housing Assistance or Section 8
- Medicaid
- Food Stamps
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- National School Lunch free lunch program

In addition, a consumer may be eligible if his or her household income is at or below 135% of the federal poverty guidelines:
