usually paired the two interstellar enemies against each other. Milwaukee-based Dark Horse published the first "Aliens vs. Predator" comic nearly 20 years ago.

Flashback to 1987. Richardson's fledgling comic book company was bathing in critical success with early titles such as Paul Chadwick's "Concrete," but it was still searching for a commercial blockbuster.

They struck an early licensing deal to create a comic based on another movie monster, "Godzilla." After seeing modest success with the giant lizard, Dark Horse latched the rights to craft stories based on the characters and creatures from 1986's "Aliens."

Dark Horse's goal was not to retell the same tale, but to invent new sequels for the story, which was itself a sequel to 1979's "Alien."

"Not to cash in on the movie title," Richardson says, "but to expand it" with Dark Horse's fleet of artists, illustrators and writers.

It worked. While "Concrete" was selling around 30,000 copies annually, "Aliens" went through five printings and sold several hundred thousand copies.

"Monster success," Richardson says.

Hot on the heels (or claws) of "Aliens," Dark Horse saw more story possibilities from another rising interstellar star.

Word is that after catching a preview for the 1987 flick "Predator," Richardson and company took off during work hours for the movie's Portland premiere. The team was excited enough afterward to make another call to 20th Century Fox's marketing department, at the time composed of just two people, Richardson recalls.

"Predator" the comic hit the stands with sales in the "Aliens"

A filmed matchup of these two monsters seemed to be destined. There was even a hint the two would meet in the 1990's "Predator 2." Near the end of the movie, just after Danny Glover enters the Predator ship, he spies an Alien skull in the trophy case.

Richardson, who was to become a producer of 2004's "Alien vs. Predator," wrote an original "AVP" film treatment not based on the comics, back in the '90s. Though it was well-received, there were roadblocks and red tape.

"Between the 'Aliens' and 'Predator,' Scott, Joel Silver, Larry Gordon, and others were involved with this thing, but they wanted to continue on with the franchise."

Shifts in Fox's studio person and the first "AVP" matchup began filing.

"Finally, they realized they had a franchise," Richardson says, "and fans have a

But what does Oden think?

Fans spoke at the box office. "Alien vs. Predator" raked in $38 million, while "Alien" went on to make $171 million, the "Alien" franchise.

Oregon Assistance Programs Summary

In 1987, the Oregon Legislature passed into law a bill as part of the state's effort to ensure that affordable residential telephone service be available to all Oregonians.

Based on that legislation, the Oregon Public Utility Commission (PUC) implemented three programs: the Telecommunications Devices Access Program (TDAP), the Oregon Telecommunications Relay Service (OTRS), and the Oregon Telephone Assistance Program (OTAP).

These programs are funded by a surcharge applied to the monthly bill for telephone and telecommunications services with access to the OTRS.

The Telecommunication Devices Access Program (TDAP)

The Telecommunication Devices Access Program (TDAP) purchases and provides telecommunication devices to Oregonians who are deaf, hearing- and/or speech-impaired, or have other disabilities that would prevent them from using a telephone. Special telecommunication devices (such as a hearing aid, visual signal, large visual display, telebraille, remote-control telephone, or cellular phone) are examples of the telecommunication equipment distributed through the program. These devices help Oregonians to communicate more fully with family and friends, as well as in society.

The Oregon Telecommunications Relay Service (OTRS)

The Oregon Telecommunications Relay Service (OTRS) was implemented in 1990 as part of the Telecommunication Devices Access Program to communicate with the hearing and speech-impaired.

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) mandates that the telecommunications services for the hearing and speech-impaired shall have access to the nation's telecommunications services that are functionally equivalent in cost and quality to the service afforded an individual with no impairment. With the passage of the ADA, Oregon was required to provide a telecommunications relay service. Compliance with Federal Communications Commission (FCC) requirements. The Oregon Telecommunications Relay Service (OTRS) is currently operating very effectively.

Oregon Telephone Assistance Program (OTAP) & Link-Up America

The Oregon Telephone Assistance Program (OTAP) provides a monthly bill for local residential telephone service. Eligible customers receive a 50% discount on their monthly bill for as long as they qualify. Half of the amount is funded through the telephone service surcharge, and the other half is the waived portion of the FCC's universal service charge.

It is important that those enrolled in the program keep OTAP staff informed of any changes in their telephone service to insure that their benefits continue. All information is treated as strictly confidential by the telephone companies.

Link-Up America: The Link-Up America Program helps qualified low-income individuals pay the hook-up portion of the hook-up charges for new residential telephone service. The program also provides a telephone and paying for any installation labor, service calls or other costs of acquiring phone service.

Eligibility: Individuals who meet the income guidelines and currently have a telephone service.

Caller ID Display Device

from our business office

Solve the mystery of who's calling and take control of your incoming telephone calls when you order Caller ID service!

Caller Identification

Have you ever found some calls to be untimely interruptions? Do you find that some callers just won't leave a message on an answering machine or voice mail? Do you occasionally miss calls because you are away from the telephone? Are there some calls you'd really rather not answer? If you answered yes to any of these questions, Caller ID can be a valuable service for you!

Caller ID is a service that gives you more control over your incoming telephone calls by allowing you to see the telephone number and name of your caller before answering the telephone. A special display device, such as the one pictured to the left is required, in addition to ordering Caller ID service.

Caller ID uses advanced technology to forward the calling number and name to the display device. This technology is not available in all telephone companies at this time. When you receive a call from a person in a non-equipped area, the Caller ID display will show "Out of Area," or "Unavailable." Federal law requires telephone companies with Caller ID technology to forward the calling party's telephone number to the called party on all interstate calls and to allow the customer to block their number from going forward on a call by call basis.

Customer Billing Information

Customer bills are prepared and sent to be received by subscribers the first of each month.

The charge for local service is billed one month in advance and long distance calls and measured extended area service options are billed in arrears.

Payment of telephone bills is to be made by the due date printed on the billing. A late charge of 1 1/2% will be applied to all balances carried forward to the next bill.

Establishment of Credit

Credit will be established to any residential or business customer who meets any one of the following criteria:

1. Satisfactory payment record with previous telephone service.
2. Provides satisfactory guarantor to secure payment of the telephone bill.
3. Provides cash deposit to secure payment of the telephone bill.

When satisfactory credit cannot be established, a deposit will be required. The amount of deposit required shall not exceed two months average billing of local and toll service. The Company may require an increase of the deposit held if conditions warrant.

Deposits

Deposits are held for a minimum of twelve months. If the customer has met Company requirements of timely payments without notices and/or interruption of service for non payment, the deposit will be credited to the customer's billing at the end of one year. If Company requirements have not been met, the deposit may be held for an additional twelve month period. Interest will be paid on all deposits held and will be paid on a yearly basis at a rate determined by the company.

Past Due Accounts

Customers with a past due bill will be advised by written notice that the account is subject to disconnect for non payment.

Service will not be disconnected for non payment on a Friday, weekend, legal holiday, or on any other day on which service cannot be reestablished the same or following day. A reconnect charge will apply on any account disconnected for non payment. A deposit or additional deposit amount may be required on accounts disconnected for non payment.

Application of Business Rates

Business service is furnished to customers whose actual or obvious use of the service is for conducting a business, trade, profession or whose use of the service is obviously not confined to domestic use.

Rates, Rules & Regulations

The Company's rates, rules and regulations governing services are approved by the Board of Directors and are available in our business office for public inspection.

Credit for Loss of Service

If you are unable to make or receive calls and your line is out of service 24 or more hours after you have reported it, you are entitled to credit on your bill for the local service charges for the period of time you were out of service. Contact the Business Office after the repair of your service to arrange for the credit to appear on your next billing.

Employee Identification

For your protection and peace of mind, Company employees who visit customer premises carry Company identification cards. If you have any doubt that a person represents the Company, please ask to see this identification card.

Customer Complaints and Disputes

Our Service Representative has a basic responsibility to answer your questions and resolve your problems. If you are not satisfied, feel free to ask to speak to a supervisor. If your problem cannot be resolved by the supervisor, higher levels of management are available to you.

Rights & Responsibilities Summary

For Oregon Utility Consumers: If you are applying for service or have service with a utility company in Oregon, you have certain rights and obligations. Following is a summary of those rights and obligations prepared by the Consumer Services Division of the Public Utility Commission. The matters described here apply only to electricity, natural gas, telephone and water services regulated by the PUC. The utility company's main obligation is to provide you with reliable services at rates approved by the PUC. Your main obligations are to pay for the services you use, to not damage or tamper with the company's facilities, and to notify the company if you move, if you wish to change your service, or if you have a problem.

Deposits

The utility may ask you to pay a deposit. If a deposit is required, you may have the right to pay it in several installments.

Third-Party Notices

You have the option to ask that another person receive your bills and notices if for some reason you are unable to receive or understand those bills and notices. Also, you may ask your utility company to furnish you with notices in another language if you do not understand English.

Financial Assistance

Several programs provide financial help, depending on your circumstances. The Low-Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP) provides money to qualified customers who need help with winter heating bills. Also, the major energy utility companies have their own financial assistance programs to help their customers. The Oregon Telephone Assistance Program (OTAP) provides reduced phone bills for qualified low-income customers. The Link-Up America program provides financial help with telephone service installation charges for qualified persons.

Disconnection Notices

Before a utility company can disconnect your service, the company must notify you. Electric and gas companies are required to give you a 15-day notice, another notice 5 days before disconnection, and must try to contact you the day the disconnection is scheduled. Telephone and water utilities must provide written notice at least 5 days before service is disconnected.

Medical Certificates

If you or a member of your family has a serious health problem and your utility service is threatened, you may obtain a medical certificate from your doctor or other medical professional who provides your health care. A medical certificate will prevent immediate disconnection of your service and requires your utility to allow you to set up a payment plan to pay any overdue bill. (Medical certificates do not apply to water utilities.)

Payment Plans

You may take advantage of one of several special payment options designed to make it easier to pay your electricity or natural gas utility bills. You may pay your bills on an equal-payment plan which will spread out your payments over the year. If you are unable to pay your electricity or gas bills for a period of time and your utility intends to cut off your service, you may also enter into a special agreement to pay the overdue amount over a period of time.

Annual Notice

Pay Per Call (900) Service Customer Rights

The Federal Telephone Disclosure and Dispute Resolution Act provides specific rights to you related to payment for 900 service calls. These are calls that you make by dialing 1-900 such as; audio information services or audio entertainment, simultaneous voice services (like chat lines), or services where charges are assessed on the basis of the completion of the call.

You should not be charged for services that are not offered in compliance with federal laws and regulations.

To dispute a 900 service charge appearing on your bill, you must call the company that billed the call. You must register your dispute within 60 days from the date of the bill. Orally communicating your dispute to the company is sufficient notification of a billing error.

If your dispute cannot be resolved while you are on the phone, you will be advised of the outcome of the investigation within 90 days of your notification of the alleged error. Upon request, a written response will be provided. While the dispute is being reviewed, you may withhold payment of the disputed 900 service charge and no collection activity may occur.

If it is agreed to remove the charge from your bill, and if the provider of the service or its agent later determines that the charge is valid, the provider of the 900 service, or its agent, may use their own collection process and additional third party collection companies to collect the amount due.

Failure to comply with these dispute resolution rules by the entity providing the dispute resolution will result in forfeiture by the entity of up to $50.00 per transaction of the disputed amount.

900 services are non-communications services. Your local or long distance service cannot be disconnected for nonpayment of 900 charges. Failure to pay legitimate charges, however, may involuntarily result in blocking of your access to these 900 services.

If you want to have your access to 900 services blocked, you can request this service by contacting your local telephone company. This blocking service can be obtained at no charge.

Consumer Warning

For the most up-to-date information on telecommunications scams visit the Federal Communications Commission's website www.fcc.gov. From the homepage, select Consumer Alerts and Factsheets. To contact the FCC by phone call toll free 1-888-225-5322 (voice) or 1-888-835-5322 (TTY).

Contact your local telephone company to add to your telephone service 900 blocking and/or international blocking.

Directory Use

The primary purpose of this directory is to furnish a means of obtaining telephone numbers of subscribers in this area. Addresses are included in the listings to assist in identifying subscribers. It is not intended that this directory be used as a mailing guide.

Customer Information

Directory Listings

Every subscriber may be listed once in the alphabetical section of the directory without charge. Additional directory listings are available at an additional charge.

Residential customers may list their surnames, given names, or initials or combination thereof and any of the following without charge:

1. One other person with the same surname who resides at the same address.
2. The customer's nickname.
3. The married name of a woman whose husband is deceased.

These arrangements also apply to an additional listing for which a charge is made. At the subscriber's request, their address may be omitted from the directory. (For more information see Telephone Soliciting on this page).

Out-of-town Directories

Directories for other cities may be obtained by calling your local telephone company. A fee may be charged for these directories.

Directory Listing Liability

Every effort is made to make the directory as accurate as possible. If an error occurs in your listing or advertising, please call your Service Representative. The Company's liability for damages arising from errors or omissions in listings is limited in accordance with its tariffs.

Recorded Conversation

A short "beep" tone heard on your telephone about every 15 seconds means that the person with whom you are talking is recording your conversation. This signal is provided for your protection. In most instances, use of a recorder without a tone-warning device is contrary to the Company's tariffs and is not permitted. When you do not want a record made of what you are saying, ask the person with whom you are talking to disconnect the recording machine. When it is disconnected, you will no longer hear the "beep" tone.

Customer Provided Equipment

Customer provided equipment may be connected to telephone company facilities only if it is registered or otherwise complies with the Federal Communication Commission's (FCC) rules and meets the conditions set forth in telephone company tariffs. These FCC rules and tariffs are designed to meet the convenience of the customer and at the same time protect the telephone network against any possible hazards to customers and Company employees.

A service charge is incurred if the telephone company visits the premises of the customer and the service difficulty or trouble is determined to have been caused by the customer's equipment or facilities.

Why You May See One Minute Calls On Your Bill

A call is considered to be completed if:

1. Called party answers.
2. Machine, Voice Mail, Modem or Fax Machine answers - even if you decide not to leave a message or transmit information.
3. Called party has special calling features on their line. For example: Call Forwarding and Call Waiting. If they have activated Call Forwarding to another number, charges begin when their line answers and forwards the call even if there is no answer at the second number.
4. Calling a business, some customer owned telephone systems (PBX's) do not have the proper signaling and even though you are not connected to a person, their system sends back a signal showing the call was completed.

Telephone Soliciting

In Oregon, soliciting by telephone is considered a deceptive trade practice if, within the first 30 seconds, the seller does not identify themselves, provide a description of the goods or services offered for sale, inquire if the called party is interested in the goods or services and immediately end the conversation if the called party is not interested. Also, the seller must, during the course of the solicitation, give the total cost of the goods or services and all information about installment payments if offered.

Commercial solicitation by Automatic Dialing and Announcing Devices is prohibited unless the caller and called party have an ongoing business relationship. Charitable and political organizations may continue to use these devices to solicit funds even without a previous business relationship.

Businesses can continue to use Automatic Dialing and Announcing Devices for purposes other than "cold call" solicitation such as reminding clients of appointments, confirming airline reservations, and notifying customers merchandise is available for pick up.

Complaints concerning unwelcome telephone solicitation or companies that have violated the law should be addressed to the Department of Justice, Financial Fraud Section, 1162 Court Street NE, Salem, OR 97310; or phone the office at 503-378-4320. If calling from the Portland area call 503-229-5576.

Oregon Telecommunications Relay Service (OTRS)

Services for the Hearing and Speech Impaired

The Oregon Telecommunications Relay Service (OTRS) is a telecommunications service providing full telephone accessibility to people who are hearing or speech impaired. This service relays calls between a person using a TTY (teletypewriter) and any other telephone user. This service also allows a person without a TTY to call a TTY user. Trained personnel complete all calls and stay online to relay messages electronically over the TTY or verbally to hearing parties. This service is provided free of charge in your local calling area; however, long distance rates will apply and are determined by your long distance carrier. The Relay allows you to place and receive calls to and from anywhere in the world, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, using English or Spanish. This service will also relay TTY calls to directory assistance. After obtaining the number, the caller may choose to place the call through Relay or dial it directly TTY to TTY.

The telephone numbers to call are:

800-735-2900	TTY
800-735-1232	Voice
800-735-0644	ASCII
800-735-3896	Spanish/Voice/TTY
800-735-3260	VCO
877-735-7525	Speech to Speech
900-568-3323	900 Service

TTY Equipment Available

Under Oregon State law, deaf and hearing impaired persons who are determined by the state to be eligible can obtain special teletypewriter (TTY) equipment, amplified telephones and signaling devices to assist in their telecommunications needs. This program is funded through a monthly surcharge on all telephone customers in the state. The Public Utility Commission of Oregon determines eligibility for these services. Interested persons should call 1-800-848-4442. TTY users can call 1-800-648-3458 or write to:

How To Handle Annoyance Calls

When you receive an obscene, harassing, or threatening telephone call, follow these suggestions:

1. When answering your telephone, say hello twice. If no answer, HANG UP.
2. Do not give information until you are absolutely certain you know who is speaking.
3. Instruct children not to give any information to strangers over the phone.
4. Hang up when you hear something off-color or obscene.
5. Never reveal the fact that you are alone.
6. When annoyance calls persist, contact your local law enforcement agency.
7. Calls of a threatening nature should be reported to the local law enforcement agency immediately.

Remember, you are in control of your phone. Use the phone on your terms, and do not talk to anyone unless you want to. Don't answer any personal questions or give your name or phone number to any unidentified caller.

Long Distance Calling

Dialing Direct Costs Less

By dialing your own long distance calls, you will pay the lowest rate and pay for only the minutes you talk (one-minute minimum).

Operator-Assisted Calls Cost More

Long Distance calls requiring an Operator are more expensive. The minimum charge for an Operator is one minute. Time and charges may be requested when placing an Operator-Assisted Call. Calls placed from hotels and coin telephones as well as the types of calls listed below are all Operator-Assisted Calls.

Types of Operator-Assisted Calls

Collect Calls

You may call collect if the person or firm you are calling agrees to pay the charges. Dial 0 + the Area Code + number and when the Operator comes on the line, say you're placing a collect call and give your name. The Operator will leave the line when the person you've called accepts the charges.

Third-Number Calls

You may have long distance charges billed to an authorized third telephone number. Dial 0 + the Area Code + number and when the Operator comes on the line say you'd like to charge your call to a third number and give the Operator that number including the Area Code.

Person-to-Person Calls

This is the most expensive type of long distance call. Call person-to-person when you wish to reach a particular person or extension number. Dial 0 + the Area Code + number and when the Operator comes on the line, say you are making a person-to-person call and give the name of the person you want to talk to. The Operator will leave the line when the person you're calling has answered the telephone.

International Calls

You can call practically anywhere in the world by dialing the Operator. However, some customers can dial overseas calls directly to many countries. See Page 20 International Calling section for more information.

Conference Calls

You can talk with several people in different places at the same time by dialing the Operator and saying you want to make a conference call. Give the Operator the names and telephone numbers of the people you want to talk to. You may want to arrange a calling time in advance. Conference rates apply.

"800/888/877/866/855" Service Telephone Numbers

Long distance calls can be made without charge when calling those businesses and people who have "800/888/877/866/855" Service numbers. They offer this service to customers calling for specific locations.

You can get the telephone numbers of those businesses and people who have "800/888/877/866/855" numbers by dialing: 1-800-555-1212.

A few "800/888/877/866/855" information numbers are charging for requesting information on unknown listings.

900 Dial-It Service

Direct-dial calls, from other than coin telephones and hotel/motels, may be placed to customers who advertise 900 Dial-It Service numbers. Dial "1" plus the Area Code "900" plus the special number. A charge applies to each call completed to a 900 number. To obtain the number of a customer which offers this service, dial (toll free) 1-900-555-1212. Your local telephone company can assist in blocking these calls.

Credit for poor connections or wrong numbers

When you dial long distance and reach a wrong number, have a poor connection or other problems, hang up and dial "0" (Operator) right away. Explain what happened so the Operator can arrange for the proper credit. The faster the problem is reported, the easier it will be to give you credit.

If you have trouble dialing directly, call the Operator and explain the difficulty. The call will be placed for you, and you will be charged at the direct-dialed rate.

Long Distance Calling

Calling (Credit) Card Calls

If you have a Calling Card (credit card) you can place long distance calls and have them charged to your telephone bill. The charge for station-to-station Calling Card calls dialed by the customer is less than the charge for collect or third-number billed calls. Calling Cards can be obtained by calling your local telephone company or the long distance carrier of your choice.

To make a call using a Calling Card, follow the dialing instructions on the back of the Calling Card or call the Calling Card provider.

Lost or Stolen Calling Cards

Call your calling card provider immediately.

Equal Access Dialing Instructions

In areas that provide Equal Access you may select the long distance carrier of your choice. Equal access allows you to use your preferred long distance company by dialing 1 plus the number.

The long distance carrier of your choice should already be connected to your telephone line. If you wish to change your selection, please notify your local telephone company. There may be a service charge for changing your selection.

If you wish to use a long distance company other than the one that you have pre-selected, you may be able to do so by dialing a special code for that company. Please call the long distance company to obtain the appropriate code. For the names and telephone numbers of these companies, see the yellow pages under "Telephone Companies."

For International call dialing instructions please call your long distance carrier. Country and City Codes for International Dialing are listed on page 20.

Some long distance companies do not provide operator services. If you have questions about the service provided or the area served by a long distance company, please call that company for more information.

Long Distance Calling

Selecting a Long Distance Carrier

Before selecting a long distance carrier, it's important to understand that there are different types of long distance calls. In addition to area codes, all states are divided into geographical areas called LATAs (Local Access Transport Areas). Oregon is divided into two LATAs: 1) North/Central Oregon LATA and 2) Southwest Oregon LATA. A long distance call from one point to another within a LATA is called an intraLATA call. A long distance call placed to a point outside a LATA is an interLATA call.

Contact your local telephone company for the names of those carriers who provide these long distance services. It's important to let your local telephone company know who you have selected as your intraLATA carrier and interLATA carrier. These may or may not be the same carrier.

You may also ask your local telephone company to place a "pic freeze" on your account. With this indicator on your account, your long distance carrier(s) cannot be changed without your authorization.

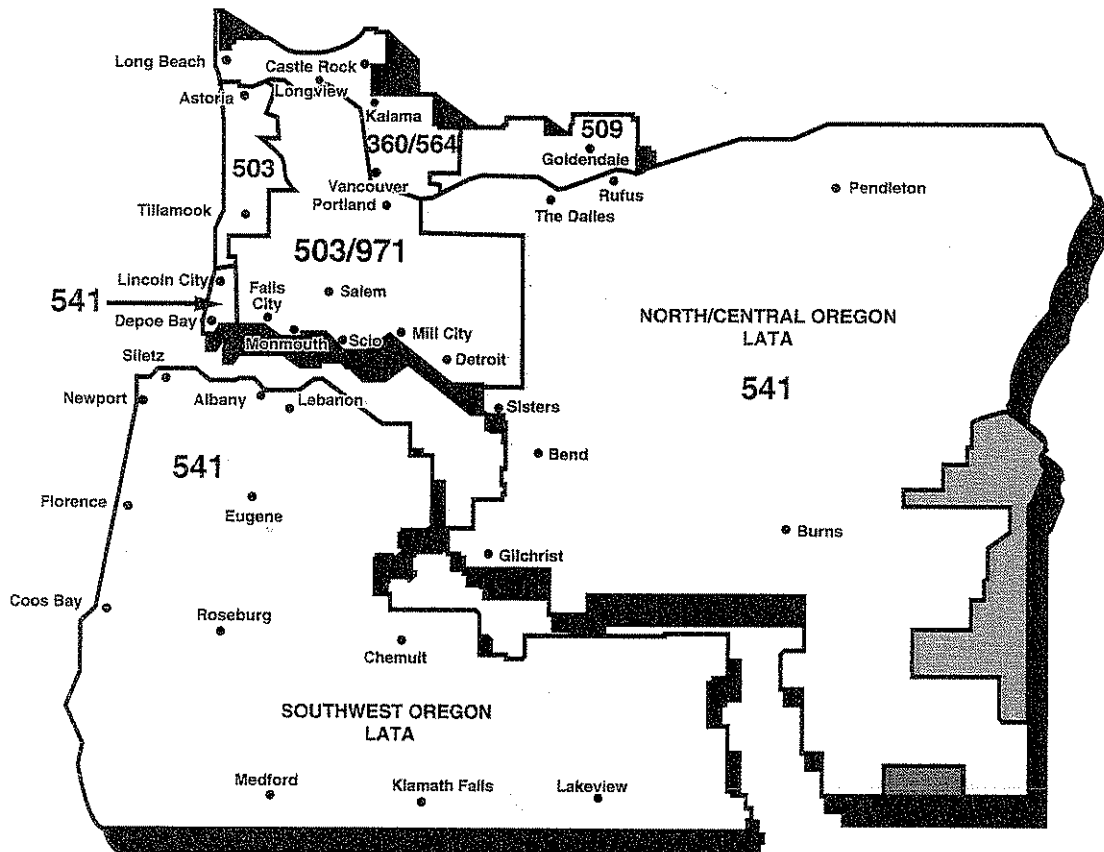

Operator Assisted/Calling Card Rates

Whenever Operator assistance is required or you use your Calling Card, there is a service charge in addition to the direct-dial rate.

Please call your local telephone company for rates.

(Discounts do not apply to operator service charges.)

Scholarships Increase to $10,000 in 2008

In 1988, Clear Creek Telephone & TeleVision began participation in the Subscriber Endowment Scholarship Awards program. The program, established to provide financial assistance to students attending college or technical school, has awarded 38 scholarships, totaling $70,000, to members of the cooperative.

In addition, students must be a high school senior maintaining at least a 'B' average over the last three quarters or two semesters. Scholarship recipients are limited to one award, and must attend a college certified by the Northwest Accreditation Association, another regional accreditation association, or the National Association of Trade and Technical Schools. The Board will appoint a volunteer selection committee to determine the awards, which will be presented at the 2008 annual meeting. Applications are available at our business office, and must be received by February 29, 2008 to be considered. For more information, please call Berni Buys at (503) 631-2101.

Financial Assistance Available For Low-Income Subscribers

Residents in our serving area whose income is at or below the current federal poverty level may be eligible for State sponsored programs that provide them with a reduction in their monthly telephone bill. Through the Oregon Telephone Assistance Program (OTAP), qualifying subscribers receive telephone service at a reduced rate each month.

Another program, called Link-Up America, assists low-income subscribers by paying for half of the line connection hook-up charges for new residential telephone service. Subscribers are responsible for the other half, must provide a telephone and pay for any installation charges or other costs of acquiring telephone service.

If you or someone you know would like additional information on these programs, please contact the Oregon Public Utility Commission's Residential Service Protection Fund (RSPF) staff at (800) 848-4442, or write to:

It's easy to talk about what needs to be done to improve our community. It's much more fun to be able to do something. Clear Creek Telephone & TeleVision is fortunate enough to have a board of directors, elected by you, the members of the cooperative, which believes we should invest in our community. In 2007, our efforts have been largely directed at the Redland School. The children of our community truly are the future and the board of directors has authorized several activities that demonstrate our commitment to that future, including:

- ❑ A donation to Redland School as part of the Oregon City School District/Oregon City Chamber of Commerce "Adopt-A-Classroom" program for 2007/2008.
- ❑ Providing the equipment for a wireless broadband network (WiFi) in the school that allows high-speed Internet access from any location in the school.
- ❑ A donation to Redland School to purchase and install new playground equipment.

We are proud to be investing in the future of our community through the children of Redland School and look forward to a continuing support of the community we serve.

Be Part Of Your Cooperative's Board of Directors

New Privacy Safeguards Implemented

Earlier this month, you received a letter from our President, Mitchell Moore, that outlined new FCC rules that mandate changes to our operation in order to safeguard your Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI). These rules were issued as a result of the increasing volume of identity theft plaguing our country. Clear Creek Telephone & TeleVision already has many safeguards in place and we are dedicated to protecting your sensitive information, but the new procedures required by the FCC are needed to strengthen this protection.

The letter outlined four new safeguards that will affect how we deal with our customers:

- ❑ Call-in customers will be authenticated with a password before CPNI is provided.
- ❑ Walk-in customers will be authenticated with a password or by presenting a valid photo ID matching the name on the account.

- ❑ All customers will be offered the option of setting up back-up authentication questions for lost or forgotten passwords.
- ❑ Customers will be immediately notified by mail of certain account changes, including changes made to passwords, back-up authentication questions, online accounts, or address of record.

The letter provided a form for you to mail to us setting up your password and back-up questions. If you have not already sent this to us, please do so as soon as possible. If you want to call us at 503-631-2101 to set up your password and questions, you will need a verification code. The letter has the "Verification Code" printed at the top. If you have lost or thrown out the letter, please call us to discuss how we can set up your password and questions.
