Para. 10(e) statement:

Dr. Bente Villadsen is a Principal with The Brattle Group, Inc.

In the past, she provided consulting services to the Arizona-American Water, New Mexico-American Water, California-American Water, ITC Midwest, Association of American Railroads, Aurizon Network (Australia), Australian Pipeline Industry Association, Telecom Italia, Netherlands Competition Authority, Balfour Beatty Infrastructure Partners, Customers of Bonneville Power, AWC Companies, Edison Electric Institute, National Association of Water Companies, and confidential litigation engagements for several electric utilities, natural gas and oil pipelines, infrastructure companies, and law firms. In the confidential engagement, she has estimated the cost of capital, calculated damages, and opined on accounting treatment of asset retirement, depreciation, and impairment.

Currently she is working on rate cases for Portland General Electric Company, Anchorage Water and Wastewater Utility, and she has confidential engagement for several law firms and private equity firms, where she advises on regulatory finance and accounting matters.

In the future she expects to work for similar clients.
