On June 20, 2005, a prehearing conference was held in this matter in Salem, Oregon. Martin Hansen and Sarah Wallace appeared via telephone on behalf of Applicant. Michael Weirich and Celeste Hari appeared in person on behalf of the Commission Staff. Guy Alvis, protestant, did not appear.¹

At the conference, the parties noted that Applicant had filed a motion to dismiss Mr. Alvis' protest. Accordingly, the parties agreed that Mr. Alvis would be given the standard 15 days to respond to the motion (by July 5, 2005) prior to the Commission issuing a ruling. The parties further agreed that in the event the Commission grants the motion to dismiss, Staff would process the application pursuant to standard procedures; if the Commission denies the motion, a further conference would be held to establish a procedural schedule.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 20th day of June, 2005.

Chief Administrative Law Judge

¹ The Commission notified Mr. Alvis of the prehearing conference and unsuccessfully attempted to contact him by telephone.
