DISPOSITION: 60-DAY STAY CONDITIONALLY GRANTED

On May 1, 2006, PacifiCorp filed a letter with the Commission, asking that this matter be held in abeyance for 60 days. The letter was not served on the other parties. On May 2, 2006, I contacted Ms. Andrea Kelly, author of the letter, and asked that a formal motion be filed.

On May 2, 2006, PacifiCorp filed a motion to stay the docket for 60 days. In its motion, PacifiCorp states that it is discussing a possible resolution of this matter with other parties, and that the additional time would be used for further discussions to resolve this issue, along with other pending issues. According to PacifiCorp, no harm or prejudice will occur to any party if the matter is delayed for 60 days.

All formal proceedings in this docket are complete. The only remaining step is issuance of the Commission's order. Arguably, the only party to be harmed by a delay is PacifiCorp. Based on these circumstances, I will conditionally grant the motion.

Objections to the motion must be filed by May 10, 2006. If objections are filed, I will rule on them by May 12, 2006. If no objections are filed, the stay will be in effect through July 3, 2006. The Commission may then issue its order any time after July 3, 2006.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 3rd day of May, 2006.
