In the Matter of

PACIFICORP, dba PACIFIC POWER,

2011 Transition Adjustment Mechanism

MEMORANDUM

DISPOSITION: SCHEDULE MODIFIED

By letter dated June 29, 2010, Katherine McDowell, on behalf of PacificCorp, dba Pacific Power (Pacific Power), reports that the Company has reached a "comprehensive settlement in principle" in this case with the Public Utility Commission of Oregon Staff (Staff), the Citizens' Utility Board of Oregon (CUB), the Industrial Customers of Northwest Utilities (ICNU), and Sempra Energy Solutions, LLC (Sempra). Accordingly, on behalf of the settling parties, Ms McDowell proposes certain changes to the procedural schedule.

Presently the date for Pacific Power to file its rebuttal testimony is July 2, 2010. The settling parties propose to suspend that filing.

The settling parties propose to file a stipulation documenting their settlement not later than July 7, 2010. They further propose that Pacific Power will file its Rebuttal Update concurrently with the stipulation.

The settling parties propose that the dates set for filing surrebuttal and sur-surrebuttal testimony be retained, as dates for filing testimony responding to the Rebuttal Update, as necessary. While the need for a hearing on the Rebuttal Update appears "unlikely," the settling parties propose that the current hearing date be reserved, in the event that a hearing is necessary.

Because of the intervening holiday, and to afford the parties sufficient time to complete their filings, I set the date of July 9, 2010, as the date for the filing of the stipulation and Rebuttal Update. In all other respects I adopt the schedule proposed by the settling parties.

The adopted schedule is as follows:

Pacific Power Rebuttal Update	July 9, 2010

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 29th day of June, 2010.
