MEMORANDUM

v.)

CENTRAL LINCOLN PEOPLE'S UTILITY) DISTRICT,) Defendant.)

DISPOSITION: PRELIMINARY SCHEDULE SET

On January 11, 2006, a telephone conference was held. Scott Thompson and Brooks Harlow appeared for Complainants, and Peter Gintner and Paul Davies appeared for Defendant. Michael Weirich was on the line for Staff. After a discussion off the record, the parties stated that they may be able to reach an agreement that would lead to a withdrawal of the motion for emergency injunctive relief. If so, the motion will be withdrawn, and the parties will advise on a later deadline for Defendant's response to the initial complaint.

If an agreement cannot be reached, Defendant's response to the motion is due January 23, 2006, and oral argument will be held in the following weeks. A notice will be sent, scheduling the date and time for oral argument. Also, if an agreement is not reached, Defendant's response to the initial complaint will be due February 24, 2006.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 17th day of January, 2006.
