DISPOSITION: MOTION TO MODIFY SCHEDULE GRANTED

On September 18, 2018, Portland General Electric Company filed a motion to extend all deadlines in the existing schedule by four weeks to help facilitate the parties' efforts to finalize settlement. PGE states that the parties hope to file a stipulation with the Commission on or before October 19, 2018. PGE adds that intervenors Northwest and Intermountain Power Producers Coalition, Community Renewable Energy Association, Renewable Energy Coalition, and Renewable Northwest support an indefinite stay of the schedule rather than the proposed four-week extension.

PGE's motion is granted. The existing procedural schedule is delayed by four weeks. The schedule is modified as follows:
