On June 9, 2006, a telephone conference was held in this matter to establish a procedural schedule. David Glenn, attorney, appeared on behalf of Crooked River Ranch Water Company (CRRWC). Jason Jones, Assistant Attorney General, appeared on behalf of the Public Utility Commission of Oregon Staff (Staff).

At the conference, the following schedule was adopted:

EVENT	DATE
Staff files prehearing brief on issues on relevant issues for hearing	July 6, 2006
CRRWC files response brief	July 24, 2006
Commission issues ruling	August 4, 2006 (target date)
Evidentiary Hearing	August 15, 2006 (to be held in Madras)

In addition, CRRWC has designated all information relating to its finances and members as confidential. Accordingly, any requests for this information will be processed according to Commission procedures governing the public release of information deemed confidential. Under such procedures, CRRWC will have the opportunity, and burden, to establish that the requested records are exempt from disclosure under Oregon’s Public Records law, codified in ORS Chapter 192. If a request is made, CRRWC will be required to cite to a specific exemption under the Public Records law and explain why the requested information meets the criteria for exemption under that specific statutory provision.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 12th day of June 2006.

Michael Grant
Chief Administrative Law Judge
