

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

UE 423

In the Matter of

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC,

2022 Annual Power Cost Adjustment
Mechanism.

MEMORANDUM

On July 26, 2023, Portland General Electric (PGE) filed a proposed procedural schedule in this docket. PGE states it conferred with Commission Staff, and they agree with the proposed schedule. PGE also states it provided the proposed schedule to the Oregon Citizens' Utility Board and the Alliance of Western Energy Consumers.

After reviewing the proposed procedural schedule and making minor adjustments, the procedural schedule is adopted as set forth below:

No prehearing conference will be held in this docket. If needed, parties may request a conference during this proceeding. Settlement conferences are included in the above procedural schedule but may be rescheduled, without seeking leave from the Commission. I ask that the parties provide a settlement update after the September 29, 2023 and October 18, 2023 settlement conferences, as indicated in the schedule, to inform me of the anticipated need for a hearing, and the potential for any necessary schedule adjustments.

Should a hearing be necessary, I will issue a prehearing memorandum with additional information on the hearing, associated deadlines, and requirements for briefing.

All filings in this proceeding are due by 3:00 p.m. on the due date via electronic submission to the Filing Center. Filings submitted after 3:00 p.m. will be considered filed on the next business day.

Dated this 27th day of July, 2023, at Salem, Oregon.
