BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

ARB 236 (4)

In the Matter of the Fourth Amendment to the) Interconnection Agreement Between UNITED) COMMUNICATIONS, INC. dba UNICOM) ORDER and QWEST CORPORATION, Submitted for) Commission Approval Pursuant to Section)
252(e) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996.)

DISPOSITION: AMENDMENT APPROVED

On December 19, 2001, United Communications, Inc., doing business as UNICOM, and Qwest Corporation filed a fourth amendment to the interconnection agreement acknowledged by the Public Utility Commission of Oregon by letter of June 14, 2000, recognizing the adoption of ARB 179 terms, with subsequent amendments approved by Order Nos. 00-675, 01-547, and 01-806, issued October 24, 2000, June 30, 2001, and September 11, 2001, respectively. The parties seek approval of the amendment under Section 252(e) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. The Commission provided notice by posting an electronic copy of the amendment on the World Wide Web, at: <http://www.puc.state.or.us/caragmnt/>. Only the Commission Staff (Staff) filed comments.

Under the Act, the Commission must approve or reject an agreement reached through voluntary negotiation within 90 days of filing. The Commission may reject an agreement only if it finds that:

- (1) the agreement (or portion thereof) discriminates against a telecommunications carrier not a party to the agreement; or
- (2) the implementation of such agreement or portion is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

Staff noted that an interconnection agreement or amendment thereto has no effect or force until approved by a state Commission. See 47 U.S.C. Sections 251 (a) and (e). Accordingly, Staff pointed out that the effective date of this filing will be the date the Commission signs an order approving it, and that any provision stating that the parties' agreement is effective prior to that date is not enforceable.

Staff recommended approval of the amendment. Staff concluded that the amendment to the previously approved agreement does not appear to discriminate against telecommunications carriers who are not parties to the agreement and does not appear to be inconsistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

OPINION

The Commission adopts Staff's recommendation and concludes that there is no basis under the Act to reject the amendment to the previously approved agreement. No participant in the proceeding has requested that the amendment be rejected or has presented any reason for rejection. Accordingly, the amendment should be approved.

CONCLUSIONS

1. There is no basis for finding that the amendment to the previously approved agreement discriminates against any telecommunications carrier not a party to the agreement.
2. There is no basis for finding that implementation of the amended agreement is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.
3. The amendment should be approved.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that the amendment to the previously acknowledged and approved agreements, between United Communications, Inc., doing business as UNICOM, and Qwest Corporation, is approved.
