In the Matter of the Petition of Wah Chang)
for a Declaratory Ruling Pursuant to ORS) 756.450.)

ORDER

DISPOSITION: PROCEEDING DISMISSED

On June 11, 2001, Wah Chang filed a petition requesting that the Commission issue a declaratory ruling on whether Wah Chang is entitled to transition credits under Senate Bill 1149. On January 7, 2002, Commission Staff employee Bill McNamee filed with Lowell Bergen, Administrative Law Judge for the Commission, his recommendation as to whether the Commission should issue the requested declaratory ruling. Mr. McNamee stated that Wah Chang's electric rates should be governed by the terms of its contract with PacifiCorp. He stated that when that contract terminates on September 12, 2002, Wah Chang will become eligible to receive PacifiCorp's Senate Bill 1149 service options, including any associated transition adjustments, that it elected between February 5 and February 7, 2002. During that three-day period, non-residential consumers were required to elect which service option they will take beginning March 1, 2002. The service option selected will continue through December 31, 2002.

On January 17, 2002, Wah Chang filed a document stating that it was withdrawing its petition for a declaratory ruling. There is no need to continue to process this proceeding.
