DISPOSITION: AMENDMENTS APPROVED

On May 10, 2002, ICG Telecom Group, Inc. (ICG) and Verizon Northwest Inc. (Verizon) filed first and second amendments to the interconnection agreement approved by the Public Utility Commission of Oregon (Commission) with Order No. 02-432. The parties seek approval of these amendments under Section 252(e) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. The Commission provided notice by posting an electronic copy of the amendments on the World Wide Web, at: <http://www.puc.state.or.us/caragmnt/>. Only the Commission Staff (Staff) filed comments.

Under the Act, the Commission must approve or reject an amendment reached through voluntary negotiation within 90 days of filing. The Commission may reject an amendment only if it finds that:

- (1) the amendment (or portion thereof) discriminates against a telecommunications carrier not a party to the amendment; or
- (2) the implementation of such amendment or portion is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

Staff noted that an interconnection agreement or amendment thereto has no effect or force until approved by a state Commission. See 47 U.S.C. Sections 251 (a) and (e). Accordingly, Staff pointed out that the effective date of this filing will be the date the Commission signs an order approving it, and that any provision stating that the parties' amendment is effective prior to that date is not enforceable.

Staff recommended approval of the amendments. Staff concluded that the amendments do not appear to discriminate against telecommunications carriers who are not parties to the amendment and does not appear to be inconsistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

OPINION

The Commission adopts Staff's recommendation and concludes that there is no basis under the Act to reject the amendments. No participant in the proceeding has requested that the amendments be rejected or has presented any reason for rejection. Accordingly, the amendments should be approved.

CONCLUSIONS

1. There is no basis for finding that the amendments discriminate against any telecommunications carrier not a party to the amendments.
2. There is no basis for finding that implementation of the amendments are not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.
3. The amendments should be approved.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that the amendments, between ICG Telecom Group, Inc. and Verizon Northwest Inc., are approved.
