DISPOSITION: CANCELLATION ORDER RESCINDED

On September 19, 2001, the Commission granted a certificate of authority to IAG Inc. (IAG) to provide telecommunications service in Oregon as a competitive provider. See Order No. 01-815.

Oregon telecommunications providers are required to provide requested information to the Commission. After investigation, the Commission found that IAG failed to comply with Oregon Universal Service Fund requirements per ORS 759.425. At the March 21, 2002, public meeting, the Commission determined that IAG's certificate of authority should be canceled. IAG's certificate of authority was canceled in Order No. 02-202. On April 18, 2002, IAG filed a request to suspend Order No. 02-202, claiming that it had complied with the Commission's rules and regulations. A review of the Commission's records indicated that IAG filed the requested information and Order No. 02-303 was entered on May 1, 2002, reinstating IAG's certificate of authority.

Again, after investigation, the Commission found that IAG failed to comply with Oregon Universal Service Fund requirements per ORS 759.425. At the April 15, 2003, public meeting, the Commission determined that IAG's certificate of authority should be canceled. IAG's certificate of authority was canceled in Order No. 03-250. On May 6, 2003, IAG filed a request to suspend Order No. 03-250, claiming that it had complied with the Commission's rules and regulations. A review of the Commission's records indicates that IAG filed the requested information on May 1, 2003.

The information sent by IAG to the Commission was late. However, the information has been received and it indicates IAG is providing telecommunications service in Oregon. Under the circumstances, the cancellation of IAG's certificate should be rescinded.

The Commission notes that this is the second time that IAG has sought reinstatement following the cancellation of its authority. Under these circumstances, the Commission emphasizes the need for IAG to fully comply with the Commission's rules and regulations in the future. If IAG again fails to fulfill its regulatory obligations, the Commission may conclude that it is not in the public interest to process a future application for re-certification as a competitive provider.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that Order No. 03-250 canceling the certificate of authority of IAG Inc., is rescinded.
