DISPOSITION: AMENDMENT APPROVED

On December 20, 2005, ICG Telecom Group, Inc. and Qwest Corporation filed a fourth amendment to the interconnection agreement previously acknowledged by the Public Utility Commission of Oregon (Commission), recognizing the adoption of ARB 324 terms. Subsequent amendments were approved with Orders No. 02-169, 03-124, and 04-440. The parties seek approval of the amendment under Section 252(e) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. The Commission provided notice by posting an electronic copy of the agreement and amendment on the World Wide Web, at: <http://www.puc.state.or.us/caragmnt/>. Only the Commission Staff (Staff) filed comments.

Under the Act, the Commission must approve or reject an agreement reached through voluntary negotiation within 90 days of filing. The Commission may reject an agreement only if it finds that:

- (1) the agreement (or portion thereof) discriminates against a telecommunications carrier not a party to the agreement; or
- (2) the implementation of such agreement or portion is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

An interconnection agreement or amendment thereto has no effect or force until approved by a state Commission. See 47 U.S.C. Sections 252 (a) and (e). Accordingly, the effective date of this filing will be the date the Commission signs an order approving it, and any provision stating that the parties' amendment is effective prior to that date is not enforceable.

Qwest's interconnection agreements generally include a provision that allows the companies to make changes in the terms and prices of the agreements when a law changes. The amendment is made in accordance with the FCC Review of the Section 251 Unbundling Obligations of Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers, Order on Remand (TRRO), issued on February 4, 2005, with an effective of March 11, 2005. The amendment states that the parties will retroactively bill for the UNE's involved. Generally retroactive billing is cause for concern. However, the retroactive billing associated with this amendment is directly related to the changes brought about by the TRRO. The TRRO allows a transition period for implementation of the provisions. The transition period is coming to an end and this amendment finalizes the terms of the TRRO into the agreement previously approved by the Commission.

Staff recommended approval of the amendment. Staff concluded that the amendment to the previously approved agreement does not appear to discriminate against telecommunications carriers who are not parties to the agreement and does not appear to be inconsistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

OPINION

The Commission adopts Staff's recommendation and concludes that there is no basis under the Act to reject the amendment to the previously approved agreement. No participant in the proceeding has requested that the amendment be rejected or has presented any reason for rejection. Accordingly, the amendment should be approved.

CONCLUSIONS

1. There is no basis for finding that the amendment to the previously approved agreement discriminates against any telecommunications carrier not a party to the agreement.
2. There is no basis for finding that implementation of the amended agreement is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.
3. The amendment should be approved.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that the amendment to the previously approved agreement between ICG Telecom Group, Inc. and Qwest Corporation is approved.

Made, entered, and effective FEB 21 2006.
