BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

UM 953

In the Matter of an Investigation into the)
Conservation of Number Resources.) ORDER

DISPOSITION: INVESTIGATION OPENED

On October 28, 1999, the Oregon Exchange Carrier Association (OECA) filed a petition requesting that the Oregon Public Utility Commission open an investigation of methods of conserving telephone number resources in Oregon.

At its November 16, 1999, public meeting, the Commission considered a report from its Staff recommending that the Commission grant the OECA request. The Commission granted Staff's request and directed that an investigation be opened. Because of the importance of the investigation to the users of telecommunications services in Oregon, the Commission directed that Staff, OECA, and other interested parties act expeditiously in conducting the investigation.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that an investigation into the conservation of number resources be opened.
