DISPOSITION: APPLICATION WITHDRAWN; DOCKET CLOSED

On July 12, 1999, Portland General Electric Company (PGE) and West Oregon Electric Cooperative, Inc. (WOEC), applied with the Commission for approval of the sale of electric utility assets and the transfer of allocated service territory. The cities of Columbia City, Rainier, Scappoose, and St. Helens opposed the sale and transfer, electing instead to be served by Columbia River People's Utility District or Clatskanie People's Utility District. This docket was held in abeyance by ruling dated October 8, 1999, pending the outcome of negotiations with the People's Utility Districts.

On August 2, 2000, Order No. 00-424 was entered in docket UA 82. That order approved the transfer and sale of assets between PGE and the People's Utility Districts. On August 14, 2000, PGE filed formal notification with the Commission of its withdrawal of its application in docket UA 74.
